Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota has long been concerned with the health of its citizens; and,

Whereas, Chronic lung diseases, known collectively as Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD), are the third leading cause of death in South Dakota, accounting for 500 deaths in 2015; and,

Whereas, Chronic obstructive pulmonary disease cost the economy of the United States an estimated $49.9 billion a year in 2010; and,

Whereas, In 2015, 15.7 million Americans have been diagnosed with COPD; and,

Whereas, Awareness, early detection, and treatment are crucial in the prevention or slowing of the spread of lung disease in this country; and,

Whereas, The citizens of South Dakota deserve the opportunity to grow, thrive, be healthy, be informed, and aware of their respiratory health and the factors that affect that health:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 2016 as

CHRONIC OBSTRUCTIVE PULMONARY DISEASE AWARENESS MONTH

in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Nineteenth Day of October in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Sixteen.

Dennis Daugaard
